Worlds Coaching

We are pleased to confirm that Catherine Maguire and Dave Woodhead will be available to coach all GBR boats at the Irish Nationals and Worlds this summer. They will hold daily briefings and debriefings on racing days, and run two days of training on Friday 26th and Saturday 27th July. There will be a contribution of £20 per boat to participate in the coaching/training. Many thanks to the RYA who are subsidising this coaching.

Winter Squads

---

This year's winter squad training is coming to an end. Well done to all the sailors who have endured this cold winter, I hope you have all enjoyed your sailing and I'm sure you will see great improvements when you go back to your local clubs and race all the sailors who have not been sailing over the winter. The committee are already planning for next year; the intention is to run the squads in the same format as this year. A RYA National Junior Squad with the top 8 to 10 boats in the country, and two National Youth Development Squads (NYDS) one in the south and one in the north with up to 12 boats in each squad. If you are under 18 on the 31st Dec 2013 and would like to try out please follow this link for more information:
