

EAMONN IN BIG TV SPORT BATTLE

By CLIFFORD DAVIS

EAMONN ANDREWS, who has quit the BBC to join ITV at £50,000 a year, is to head an all-out attack on the BBC's Saturday afternoon sports programme.

This will be his big job for ABC Television when the autumn schedules are announced shortly.

Until now the BBC has had the edge on ITV in week-end sports coverage.

But with Eamonn at the helm ITV chiefs are confident they will draw big audiences away from the Corporation's channel.

Skill

Eamonn's other big week-end job will be to act as host on a new-style late night show on Saturdays.

It will be televised live and unscripted from ABC's Teddington studios and will give Eamonn the chance to use his tremendous skill as an off-the-cuff TV performer.

The show will feature personalities in the news, entertainers, general gossip and news items.

On Sunday afternoons Eamonn will present a children's programme.

Howling youths arrested at police station

A MOB of nearly 100 howling teenagers stormed the doors of a police station early yesterday protesting against the arrest of some of their friends. Seven of the demonstrators were arrested by the police at Andover, Hants, and will appear in court today charged with offences under the Public Order Act. The trouble started late on Saturday when police tried to break up fights in the main streets of the town between rival groups of long-haired teenagers. Two boys were treated in hospital.

A COACH trip ended in a death crash yesterday for these men and women from the Russian Embassy in London. Their coach, driven by a Russian, was in an accident with a van on the Great South-West road at Hounslow, Middlesex. The driver of the van, Peter Edwards, of Laleham-road, Staines, was killed. Two of the Russians were slightly hurt, but they refused offers of medical aid.

Russians in death crash

Some of the thirty Russians in the coach, who were on a day trip to Winchester, are pictured above walking to Hounslow Underground station. They returned home to the Embassy at Kensington by train.

ANGRY CROWD SHOUTS AT CLIFF RESCUE BOY

A N angry crowd surrounded an 18-year-old student after he had been rescued from a cliff face yesterday. A fire officer said: "I have never seen a crowd react against a rescued person before."

Bang! Bang! — the CO's new boat

THE mysterious hammering in the boiler-room baffled sailors at the Royal Naval Barracks, Devonport — until they discovered it was the CO at work. Commodore George Leslie was building a Mirror Class dinghy. day, and for the rest of the week, the Commodore's boat and sixty other red-sailed Mirror dinghies will be racing at Plymouth for trophies presented by famous Daily Mirror writers. Commodore is on duty in Ireland, so his dinghy will be sailed by local champion David Wines.

"There were murmurs all the time, and people were shouting. When the youth was brought to the top several people told him that he deserved to have been left on the cliff-face."

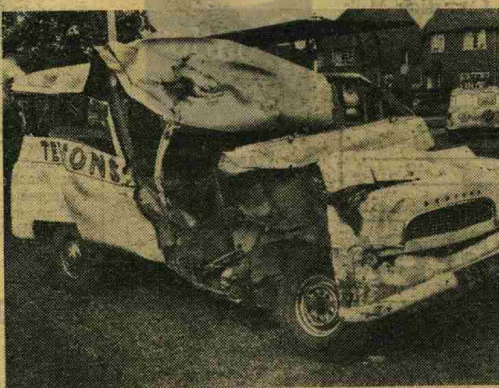

And one of the people who saw the rescue, Mr. Ronald Burgess, of Victoria Park, Dover, said: "It is ridiculous that young people can endanger the lives of our firemen and policemen."

Shirt

The climber, Alan Murray, had been trapped on Shakespeare Cliff, Dover, with a 280ft. drop to jagged rocks below him. Alan's dark shirt saved him from almost certain death—a woman spotted it outlined against the white chalk of the cliff. She called for help.

Fireman Cyril Wilson, 32, of Westbury-road, Dover, was lowered on a rope and fastened a harness around Alan, who was hauled to safety.

Alan, of Holly-avenue, Newcastle-upon-Tyne, said: "It never occurred to me that I should get trapped on the cliff. I was annoyed to find so many onlookers at my rescue."

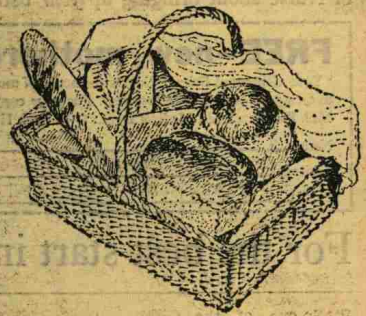

Wrecked . . . the van in which a man died.

PRIZES, PRIZES, GALORE

PRIZES! Prizes! Prizes! They're waiting to be won during DAILY MIRROR DAY at leading seaside resorts this week. Today is Daily Mirror Day at MABLETHORPE, Lincs (Central Beach). Tomorrow it's Mirror Day at SKEGNESS (South Bracing Beach). Then it's GREAT YARMOUTH (beach opposite Anchor-gardens) on Wednesday. MARGATE Marine Sands on Thursday and HAMS GATE (beach opposite Coronation Ballroom) on Friday. The Daily Mirror show is a free three-in-one entertainment from 10.30 a.m. until 4 p.m. It is the biggest-ever travelling beach show and already it has been applauded by more than 100,000 holidaymakers at top coastal resorts. "Count Down"—the first-ever beach give-away show for the whole family —has proved a big draw with the crowds. It is a fast-moving programme of games and contests, mostly for children. It has hundreds of prizes. For energetic holiday-makers, there is "Swing and Roll"—a test of strength for the men, an exciting speed game for the ladies. More prizes here! Finally, you can relax and enjoy the lovely Mirror Girl modelling the latest holiday and beach wear. YOU can win £50 if you judge her age, height and weight correctly. Be sure you take part in MIRROR DAY this week!

Bread comes in many shapes and sizes— all full of healthy wheaty goodness

USE YOUR LOAF

for health and energy

THE FLOUR ADVISORY BUREAU, 21 ARLINGTON STREET, LONDON, S.W.1.

USE YOUR LOAF USE YOUR LOAF USE YOUR LOAF

Chairman's Statement

THE GREYHOUND RACING ASSOCIATION TRUST LIMITED

Major-General Sir Miles W. A. P. Graham, K.B.E., C.B., M.C., presided at the 26th Annual General Meeting held on 7th August. In his Chairman's Statement, previously circulated, Sir Miles praised the recent acquisition of Catford Stadium Ltd. as a accession of strength to the Group and an important step in the process of rationalization which the Board believe to be vital for the future of greyhound racing.

The adverse effect of the "untaxed" betting shops upon attendances has been severe, especially since the start of the Group's current financial year, and Sir Miles warned of the sharp cuts which have been made into earnings—an experience which being shared by other managements. The reduction of the Pool Betting Duty, from 10% to 5%, on August, 1964, should be helpful but it was too early to assess long-term effect on the Group's business. The Accounts were adopted, the proposed dividend and special dividend confirmed and the retiring Directors re-elected.